

Stihl Saw & Abrasive Wheel Training Course Specification

Duration: ½ day

Attendees: Operatives involved in the operation of a Stihl Saw and the changing of the abrasive wheel.

Objectives: To give the attendees such practical and theoretical knowledge to enable the candidate to operate the Stihl Saw in accordance with all statutory regulations, guidance notes and the manufacturers instructions.

Content: General Health & Safety Regulations.(Health & Safety at Work Act, Management of Health & Safety at Work, Provision & Use of Work Equipment, Personal Protective Equipment at Work, Safety in the use of Abrasive Wheels)

Identify hazards and risks arising from the use of abrasive wheels

Abrasive wheel markings

Mounting the abrasive wheel

Store, handle and transport abrasive wheels

Inspect and test abrasive wheel for damage

Identify hazards and risk from the use of a Stihl Saw

Identify components of the Stihl Saw

Starting and stopping the Stihl Saw

Securing the work piece

PPE requirements

Certification: Safety and Access Ltd Certificate of Training

The course can be delivered at Nottingham or at customer's premises etc.

Maximum of 6 people per course.

Tel: 0115 979 4523 Fax: 0115 977 1228 safe@safetyaccess.co.uk (Ref: Yard-001)

www.safetyaccess.co.uk

